

Sunday in the Park Concert Series

Free Shuttle Transportation

Dorothea Dix Park and Fred Fletcher Park are partnering to offer a music series presenting a new musical genre each week. Event locations will alternate between Dorothea Dix Park's Harvey Hill and Fred Fletcher Park. Bring the whole family, a picnic and a blanket/chair, and sit back and enjoy the music! Food trucks will also be on site offering dinner and desserts. Beer and wine are permitted. Find the concert schedule at parks.raleighnc.gov

Free shuttle rides are being offered for two concerts. You must pre-register to save your seat.

July 16th: Raleigh Jazz Orchestra: Raleigh's Premier Jazz Orchestra at Dix Park

The RJO is a professional jazz ensemble under the direction of Dr. Neal Finn consisting of the finest jazz musicians in the Raleigh area. They perform music from the entire history of big band jazz with custom arrangements and original tunes.

#213109	Ann Gordon Center	Departing 5:00pm	Returning 8:45pm
#213110	Five Points Center	Departing 5:00pm	Returning 8:45pm

August 6th: Deep Breathe at Fletcher Park

A tribute to the best of the Moody Blues

#213111	Ann Gordon Center	Departing 5:00pm	Returning 8:45pm
#213112	Five Points Center	Departing 5:00pm	Returning 8:45pm

*Both locations have shade, however Dix Park has grassy hills if you have mobility issues as well as port-a-johns.

RALEIGH Parks, Recreation and
Cultural Resources
parks.raleighnc.gov

Five Points Center for Active Adults
2000 Noble Road 919-996-4730

Anne Gordon Center for Active Adults
1901 Spring Forest Road 919-996-4720

